General Information

Accommodation Finding fee: £35

Accommodation is usually booked from Saturday to Saturday or Sunday to Sunday (7 nights).

Always indicate two choices of accommodation. We cannot guarantee your first choice of host family or residential accommodation, particularly in the summer time. If your first choice is unavailable, we will book the second choice.

Accommodation can be booked for a minimum of one week. Accommodation can be extended after arrival with one week's notice for host families or two week's notice for residential accommodation.

If you cancel your accommodation less than 15 days before you arrive or during your course, you will lose your accommodation finding fee of £35 plus you will have to pay cancellation fees, which will vary according to the type of accommodation booked. Please note that some residences do not allow cancellation after arrival.

If you do not like your accommodation, we will change it with one week's notice provided there is a good reason and there is an alternative available.

Please let us know if you have any special requirements regarding diet, pets, smoking or allergies and we will do our best to match you with the right accommodation.

Before you leave your country, we will send you all the details of your accommodation and details of your airport transfer pick-up, if you have requested one. For travel information in London, please see www.tfl.gov.uk and www.streetmap.co.uk

If you have not ordered an airport transfer, you must contact your homestay to tell them when you will be arriving so that the host family are at home to welcome you.

Contact us if you would like advice on choosing accommodation.

For detailed information on host family accommodation and the different residential accommodation available please visit www.uiclondon.com.
